

Old Technology Exhibition

The 'Old Technology' exhibitions provide a snapshot of the diversity of technology items previously used at UniSQ such as computers, calculators, office equipment, typewriters, etc.

Dictaphones, data storage devices, laptop, calculators, pen barcode reader (1970s – 1995).

Commodore 8096 – SK Computer with service manual (1980s) and operating system (cassette tapes).

Electric Clock/Calendar – JADCO Model DT- 17 (1970s). Mounted in B Block Administration foyer (Toowoomba Campus) until June 2007.

Left to Right: Apple Macintosh Classic (1991), iMac G4 (2002), Apple iMac (1998).

Stapler, tax calculator, self-inking numbering stamp, manual and electric typewriters (1970s – 1990).

Cameras and telephones (1978 – 2000).

Mechanical calculator Monroe LN-160X (circa 1950), ICT Hand-operated card punch (circa 1960), TI59 Calculator with PC-100A print/security cradle (1977).

Telex headset with microphone - Model 1209 (circa 1984).