

USQ ALLY Network Newsletter

Issue #26 June 2018

Wow, we are already half way through the year—where did it go?! Hopefully you have survived exams and looking forward to the end of semester break. Well, rest up, as Semester 2 is just around the corner, and as always it is still a busy time for the Ally Network. We are looking for volunteers once again as we have a number of events coming up soon, which include:

Market Days at Ipswich (Monday 16 July), Springfield (Tuesday 17 July) and Toowoomba (Wednesday 18 July)

Open Days at Toowoomba (Sunday, 19 August), Ipswich (Saturday, 1 September) and Springfield (Friday evening, 7 September)

If you would like to volunteer and help us out at the Ally stands at these events, then please email Ally@usq.edu.au and we will inform you of all the details.

Please don't forget that we are always on the look out for interesting articles, information about events and professional development opportunities to include in the Ally newsletter. Please email Ally@usq.edu.au to share your points of interest.

Wedding cake ruling's silver lining for LGBT rights

On 4th May, the U.S. Supreme Court issued its long-awaited decision in Masterpiece Cakeshop v. Colorado Civil Rights Commission, involving a baker who objected to making a wedding cake for a same-sex couple. Although the court ruled for the baker, its reasoning should give LGBT people hope—and spur lawmakers to take action. MORE
